

Conference Objectives

- Describe the new JCAHO Standards and how to implement them in the facility setting.
- List 5 liability issues and methods of prevention specific to sedation.
- Discuss patient assessment and monitoring for moderate sedation.
- Differentiate postoperative nausea and vomiting (PONV) from post discharge nausea and vomiting (PDNV).
- List 3 causes of PONV in the postoperative setting.
- Discuss patients at risk for PONV.
- Discuss the implications of PDNV for the ambulatory surgery patient.
- Identify common causes of nursing liability in the perianesthesia setting.
- Describe methods to decrease the potential for liability.
- Describe the steps from idea development to manuscript publication.
- Define the process for publication from submission to publication.
- Describe the methods of heat loss in the perioperative setting.
- Identify clinical implications of hypothermia to the patient.
- Discuss methods of preventing heat loss in the perioperative setting using a collaborative approach.
- Identify special considerations in the pre, intra, and postoperative care of the pediatric and geriatric population.
- Describe how the physiologic changes of pregnancy impact care of the mother and fetus in the ambulatory surgery setting.

7.0 Contact Hours

Hotel Accommodations

Crowne Plaza
2700 Pilot Knob Road
Eagan, MN 55121
800-324-2664

Ask for the MNDKSPAN room block. Reservations must be made by February 24, 2006 for the block guarantee. Rate is $89.99/night, PLUS 9.5% tax added. Sometimes there are lower rates on the internet to book but with booking on the internet there are restrictions: you cannot cancel or change your reservations you are billed at the time of booking.

MNDKSPAN Conference cancellations

Refunds will be determined by the date cancellation is received. Full refund two weeks preceding conference date; 20% administrative fee 14 to 2 days preceding conference; no refund the date immediately preceding the conference date.